

Open Space and Regional Parks Commission Meeting May 28, 2025

March 2025 Volunteer Hours = 601.25

Volunteer Contributions Included:

- Dedicated Arboretum Gardeners and members of the May Arboretum Society.
- Discovery Room volunteers at the May Museum, who led dragon craft activities with children during spring break.
- UNR Cooperative Extension volunteers and community members who helped cultivate the community garden at Rancho San Rafael.
- Hive volunteers who unlock the pickleball courts at Lazy 5 Regional Park.
- Individual volunteer Andrew Pastura, who generously contributed four hours to repairing the split rail fence along Evans Creek Trail.
- Community volunteers who registered online to help decommission trails at Hidden Valley Regional Park and Mia Vista Park.
- Thirteen local AmeriCorps members who spent the morning improving trail conditions at Mia Vista Park.
- Cub Scout Pack 150, park adopters of Davis Creek Regional Park
- Wildwood Open Lands Foundation, park adopters at Betsey Caughlin Donnelly Park removed trash and green waste.
- UNR-ASUN helped prepare the Community Garden at Rancho San Rafael Park.
- Gearhut, park adopters of Huffaker Hills Trailhead, removed garbage and dog waste.

April 2025 Volunteer Hours = 1,107

Volunteer Contributions Included:

- Arboretum gardeners and May Arboretum Society members preparing for the annual plant sale.
- Hive volunteers that unlock the pickleball courts at Lazy 5 Regional Park.
- Sutton Place Limited weeding the farm equipment displays around the Loop Trail at Bartley Ranch Regional Park.
- IBEW Local 401 for two days at Lazy 5 to help plant native vegetation.
- ADESA Reno, the new adopters of Swan Lake removed green waste in their first cleanup.
- Laurel Trust Company participated in an Earth Day cleanup at Dorostkar Park.
- Abbi Advertising Agency weeded in the Pollinator Garden at Rancho San Rafael Park.
- Greystar Real Estate helped prepare the rows in the Community Garden for planting at Rancho San Rafael Park.
- UNR Pre-Dental Society helped with setup and takedown of Farm Day, a popular event at Rancho San Rafael Park.