None Selected

Are you currently a member of the Prehospital Medical Advisory Committee?☐ Yes ☐ No

Do you have personal aspirations or perceived conflicts of interest that could be impacted by board service?

Please tell us about yourself

Why are you interested in being part of this board, commission, or academy?

I have lived most of my life in Washoe County, and my career has always been mental health and programming. I moved back to Reno in 2020 to help my mom during covid, and over the course of four years, her medical condition and needs changed dramatically. Before she passed away in 2024, I was her caregiver, so I feel I have a unique perspective of what that requires and knowledge of services available, as well as lacking. To honor my mother and hopefully help others in similar situations, I want to use my knowledge, resources, and compassion to improve services throughout the county.

How do you feel you are qualified to serve on this board? Include any past experience, as well as serving on other board/commissions.

I feel I am qualified because I have experienced the need for improvement personally. I have not worked on any commissions, but I do serve as a higher ranking member of my sororities Chapter Housing Corporation. As the reigning secretary, I take detailed notes, organize functions, develop forms and contracts, and coordinate on issues such as fire and safety, anti-hazing, management of Housing Director, and day to day operations.

Do you currently serve on any boards/committees or volunteer?
