Candidate Statement

Provide a candidate statement not to exceed 200 words in length.

During my 15 years of practice in family law within Northern Nevada, I have witnessed firsthand the challenges faced by individuals when they engage with the courts, particularly when their financial assets, property, and children are at stake. In the fraught cases in Family Court, it is essential that the proceedings are fair, impartial, and compassionate. As a judge, I will strive to ensure that each litigant leaves the court having received a fair and well-considered decision, having been heard, having been treated with respect, and having been given the dignity due to every person.
